MOTION TO ALLOW/DEEM TIMELY
LATE FILING OF PROOF OF CLAIM
BY ALEECE FELDHAUS;
MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES; DECLARATION OF UZAIR SALEEM IN SUPPORT

Date: January 12, 2020
Time: 10a.m. (Pacific Time)
Place: United States Bankruptcy Court
Courtroom 17, 16th Floor
San Francisco, CA 94102
Judge: Hon. Dennis Montali

TO THE HONORABLE DENNIS MONTALI, UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCH COURT
JUDGE, THE OFFICE OF THE UNITED STATES TRUSTEE, AND ALL INTERESTED PARTIES:

Skikos, Crawford, Skikos, & Joseph LLP represents thousands of victims of the Fires started by PG&E in 2017 (generally referred to as the “North Bay Fires”) and 2018 (“Camp Fire”) and 2019 (“Kincade Fire”).

Skikos, Crawford, Skikos, & Joseph LLP respectfully files this motion on behalf of CLIENT (“Movant”) to deem timely late filing of proofs of claims (“Motion”).

1           I.       SUMMARY OF ARGUMENT

2           A proof of claim may be deemed timely upon a showing of excusable neglect and lack of
3 prejudice to the Debtors. In this case, Movant’s husband at the time of the fire was an employee
4 of the Debtor PG&E and feared retaliatory consequences for filing an action against his employer.
5 Movant and her husband did not seek action against PG&E due to his understanding that such a
6 decision could jeopardize his employment. Movant has since separated from her husband and 7 seeks to file to claim to compensate her significant damages. Ultimately, Movant’s fear of 8 employment retaliation against her husband prevented the Movant from timely filing a proof of 9 claim. Because her claim is a consequence of excusable neglect, there is no danger of prejudice to 10 the Debtors, and the claim was made in good faith, this Motion should be granted to allow Aleece
11 Feldhaus to have her claim deemed timely.

12           II.       FACTUAL BACKGROUND

13                   A. Movants’ Claims Arising from Camp Fire

14           Creditor Aleece Feldhaus (“Feldhaus”) lived at 6439 North Point Drive, Paradise, CA.
15 Feldhaus worked as an elementary school teacher at Paradise Elementary School. Her husband
16 was employed by PG&E. Feldhaus and her husband purchased their home in 2018. Feldhaus is a
17 survivor of the Camp Fire that burned through her hometown of Paradise within hours. On 18 October 8, 2018, Feldhaus barely escaped the fire with her life. Given no notice, she was forced 19 to evacuate from her elementary school with minutes to spare. After Feldhaus evacuated her
20 students from the school, she frantically drove to her home in time to rescue her pets and gather a
21 few personal belongings. After getting her dog, her neighbor’s cat, and a few belongings, she left
22 Paradise only to be stuck in gridlock traffic for three hours as everyone was desperate to leave the 23 burning town at the same time. See Declaration of Uzair Saleem (“Saleem Decl.”)

24           The fire did not destroy Feldhaus’s home, but it did cause significant damage to structures
25 on the property and to its extensive landscaping. All of the other homes on Feldhaus’s street were 26 destroyed by the fire. Feldhaus was displaced for several months after the fire and would spend
27 significant time living in hotels and motorhomes. Feldaus was not allowed to return to her
28 Paradise home until it was deemed safe to do so by Butte County officials. Feldaus found herself

1 overwhelmed by her debilitating psychological trauma and the logistical demands of temporarily
2 reestablishing her life elsewhere. Feldhaus's husband at the time of the fire was an employee of
3 the Debtor PG&E and feared retaliatory consequences for filing an action against his employer.
4 Consequently, Feldhaus and her husband did not seek action against PG&E due to his
5 understanding that such a decision could jeopardize his employment. Once Feldhaus had 6 separated from her husband she decided to pursue the claim that he feared would destroy his
7 career. See ("Saleem Decl.")

8 III. LEGAL ARGUMENT

9 In Chapter 11 proceedings, bankruptcy courts have broad discretion to accept late filings,
10 including proofs of claim, where tardiness is the consequence of "excusable neglect." Fed. R.
11 Bank. Pro. 9006(b)(1). This standard is "flexible," and permits the Court to allow "late filings
12 caused by inadvertence, mistake, or carelessness, as well as by intervening circumstances beyond
13 the party's control." Pioneer Inv. Servs. Co. v. Brunswick Assocs. Ltd. P'ship, 507 U.S. 380, 389
14 (1993). Where the party's delay is caused by overwhelming personal distress, a late filing may be
15 allowed on grounds of excusable neglect. See e.g., In re Nw. Territorial Mint, LLC, No. AP 16
16 1217-CMA, 2018 WL 6187762, at *5 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. Nov. 27, 2018) ("Excusable neglect can 17 include sudden death, disability or illness of counsel, a close family member of counsel, or . . . the 18 party."); In re Schultz, 254 B.R. 149, 154 (B.A.P. 6th Cir. 2000) (same); TCI Group Life Ins. Plan
19 v. Knoebber, 244 F.3d 691, 699 (9th Cir. 2001) (excusable neglect where party was experiencing 20 extreme personal difficulties and was "distraught") (overruled on other grounds); Comm. for 21 Idaho's High Desert, Inc. v. Yost, 92 F.3d 814, 824 (9th Cir. 1996) (holding that "compelling 22 circumstances" in one's personal life may constitute excusable neglect).

23 The test for excusable neglect is "at bottom an equitable [inquiry]." Pioneer Inv. Servs.
24 Co., 507 U.S. at 395. Courts in the Ninth Circuit generally examine four (4) factors in 25 their analysis: (i) the danger of prejudice to the non-movant, (ii) the length of delay and its 26 potential impact on the judicial proceedings, (iii) the reason for the delay, and (iv) whether the 27 movant acted in good faith. See id. Each of these four factors weighs heavily in favor of 28 Feldhaus. Accordingly, her late proof of claim should be deemed timely.

1        First, the Feldhaus claim will not prejudice PG&E, there is no danger of prejudice here.
2        The value of the Feldhaus claim is marginal relative to the Debtors' estates and the allowance of
3        that claim will not disrupt the reorganization or distribution process. Debtors' estates are solvent,
4        and all creditors stand to be paid. See, e.g., In re Best Payphones, Inc., 523 B.R. 54, 75-6 (Bankr.
5        S.D.N.Y. 2015) and In re Sheehan Mem'l Hosp., 507 B.R. 802, 803 (Bankr. W.D.N.Y. 2014)
6        (where the chapter 11 estate is solvent, "the proper remedy for a late filing is not the 7        expungement of a claim, but its allowance as a tardily filed claim only).

8        Second, despite the late filing, the Feldhaus claim will have essentially zero impact on the 9        judicial proceedings and will not change PG&E's reorganization process. There are tens of 10       thousands of similarly situated claimants as Feldhaus and her claim will be placed among them,
11       resulting in no noticeable impact upon the distribution process. See e.g., In re Dix, 95 B.R. 134,
12       138 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 1988) (allowing proof of claim filed two-years late because "there is no
13       indication [of] a negative impact on efficient court administration"); In re Earth Rock, Inc., 153
14       B.R. at 63 (finding excusable neglect where eight-month delay would not impact reorganization 15       proceedings).

16       Third, the totality of the factual circumstances in Feldhaus's survival warrants excusable
17       neglect. On October 8, 2018, Feldhaus barely escaped the fire with her life. Given no notice, she
18       was forced to evacuate from her elementary school with minutes to spare. After Feldhaus
19       evacuated her students from the school, she frantically reached her home in time to rescue her
20       pets and gather a few personal belongings. After getting her dog, her neighbor's cat, and a few
21       belongings she left Paradise only to be stuck in gridlock traffic for 3 hours as everyone was 22       desperate to leave the burning town at the same time.

23       In the aftermath of the fire, Feldhaus was displaced for several months and was forced to 24       live in hotels and motor homes until Butte County allowed residents whose homes did not burn to 25       return. While her home was not destroyed by the fire, her land and structures were significantly
26       damaged. Additionally, all of the homes on her street were destroyed. Feldhaus found herself
27       overwhelmed by her debilitating psychological trauma and the logistical demands of temporarily
28       reestablishing her life elsewhere. Feldhaus's husband at the time of the fire was an employee of

1 the Debtor PG&E and feared retaliatory consequences for filing an action against his employer.
2 Consequently, Feldhaus and her husband did not seek action against PG&E due to his
3 understanding that such a decision could jeopardize his employment. Only after Feldhaus had 4 separated from her husband did she no longer fear pursuing a claim that could harm his career.
5 See (“Saleem Decl.”) See e.g., Comm. for Idaho's High Desert, Inc. v. Yost, 92 F.3d 814, 824
6 (9th Cir. 1996) (“compelling circumstances” in one’s personal life may constitute excusable 7 neglect).

8 Ultimately, Feldhaus’s claim was made in good faith. Feldhaus did not contact an attorney
9 until after the bar date and once she had separated from her husband. Had she been informed or 10 aware that filing a claim would bear no consequence upon her husband’s employment with 11 PG&E, she would have timely filed a proof of claim.

12 13 IV. CONCLUSION

14 For the foregoing reasons, this Motion should be granted and Aleece Feldhaus’s claim
15 should be deemed timely.

Declaration of Uzair Saleem

I, Uzair Saleem, declare as follows:

1. I am an individual over 18 years of age and competent to make this Declaration.
2. If called upon to testify, I could and would competently testify as to the facts set forth in this Declaration. The facts set forth below are true based on my personal knowledge or through information obtained my staff.
3. I am an attorney of the law firm Skikos, Crawford, Skikos, & Joseph LLP and I make this declaration in support of the Motion to Allow/Deem Timely Late Filing of Proof of Claim.
4. Creditor Aleece Feldhaus ("Feldhaus") is a survivor of the Camp Fire that occurred in 2018.
5. Feldhaus lived at 6439 North Point Drive, Paradise, CA 95926.
6. Feldhaus was a lifelong resident of Paradise and a teacher at Paradise Elementary School.
7. As a result of the Camp Fire, Feldhaus was displaced from her home for several months. While her home was not destroyed, her structures and land sustained significant damage. Additionally, all of the other homes on her street were destroyed.
8. Overwhelmed by her loss and debilitating psychological trauma, Feldhause was then forced to grapple with the logistical demands of temporarily reestablishing her life elsewhere. Feldhaus's husband, from whom she is now separated, works for PG&E. The couple feared employer retaliation if a claim was filed. Only once the bar date had passed and the couple had separated did Feldhaus understand that she could have filed a proof of claim.
9. On February 6, 2020, Feldhaus retained Skikos, Crawford, Skikos, & Joseph LLP.
10. On December 6, 2020, a Proof of Claim was filed on behalf of Feldhaus, Claim Number 106853. A true and correct copy of the Subject Proof of Claim is attached to this Declaration as Exhibit 1.

1 I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on
2 December 11, 2020.

PLEASE REVIEW YOUR PROOF OF CLAIM AND SUPPORTING DOCUMENTS AND REDACT ACCORDINGLY PRIOR TO UPLOADING THEM. PROOFS OF CLAIM AND ATTACHMENTS ARE PUBLIC DOCUMENTS THAT WILL BE AVAILABLE FOR ANYONE TO VIEW ONLINE.

IMPORTANT NOTE REGARDING REDACTING YOUR PROOF OF CLAIM AND SUPPORTING DOCUMENTATION When you submit a proof of claim and any supporting documentation you must show only the last four digits of any social-security, individual's tax-identification, or financial-account number, only the initials of a minor's name, and only the year of any person's date of birth. If the claim is based on the delivery of health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services so as to avoid embarrassment or the disclosure of confidential health care information.

A document has been redacted when the person filing it has masked, edited out, or otherwise deleted, certain information. The responsibility for redacting personal data identifiers (as defined in Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9037) rests solely with the party submitting the documentation and their counsel. Prime Clerk and the Clerk of the Court will not review any document for redaction or compliance with this Rule and you hereby release and agree to hold harmless Prime Clerk and the Clerk of the Court from the disclosure of any personal data identifiers included in your submission. In the event Prime Clerk or the Clerk of the Court discover that personal identifier data or information concerning a minor individual has been included in a pleading, Prime Clerk and the Clerk of the Court are authorized, in their sole discretion, to redact all such information from the text of the filing and make an entry indicating the correction.

Instructions for Proof of Claim (Fire Claim Related)

United States Bankruptcy Court

You may have a claim against the Debtors for monetary loss, personal injury (including death), or other asserted damages arising out of or related to a fire. You should consider obtaining the advice of an attorney, especially if you are unfamiliar with the chapter 11 process and privacy regulations.

A person who files a fraudulent claim could be fined up to $500,000, imprisoned for up to 5 years, or both.
18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 157 and 3571.

How to fill out this form

- Fill in all of the information about the claim as of the date this claim form is filed.
- If the claim has been acquired from someone else, then state the identity of the last party who owned the claim or was the holder of the claim and who transferred it to you before the initial claim was filed.
- For a minor child, fill in only the child's initials and the full name of the child's parent or guardian. For example, write A.B., a minor child (John Doe, parent). See Bankruptcy Rule 9037.
- You may but are not required to attach supporting documents to this form.
Supporting documents will be gathered, maintained, and provided at a later date as instructed by the Court. If you do attach documents, you should attach redacted documents as supporting documentation will be made publicly available and will not be kept confidential. See the definition of redaction of information below.
- Do not attach original documents because attachments may be destroyed after scanning.
- Question 3. Members of a family may but are not required to file a proof of claim as a family but may, if they choose, submit individual claim forms for each family member that has a claim against the debtors.

- Question 9. If you suffered property damage, then provide the street address of each real property parcel where you suffered property damage. If you were personally evacuated as the result of a fire, then provide the address or intersection closest to where you encountered the fire and began evacuation. If you suffered property damage and were evacuated from a different location, include both. If you were a renter, provide the address of your residence.
- Question 10. This question requests general statements of underlying facts relating to harm and is not intended to be exhaustive or preclusive.
- Question 11. You are not required to include a claim amount with your proof of claim. Providing a claim amount at this time is optional.

Confirmation that the claim has been filed

To receive confirmation that the claim has been filed, enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope and a copy of this form together with the original. You may view a list of filed claims in this case by visiting the Claims and Noticing Agent's website at <https://restructuring.primeclerk.com/pge>.

Understand the terms used in this form

Claim: A creditor's right to receive payment for a debt that the debtor owed on the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy. 11 U.S.C. §101 (5). A claim may be secured or unsecured.

Creditor: A person, corporation, or other entity to whom a debtor owes a debt that was incurred on or before the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy. 11 U.S.C. § 101 (10).

Debtor: A person, corporation, or other entity who is in bankruptcy. In this instance, PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas & Electric Company.

Information that is entitled to privacy: A Proof of Claim form and any attached documents must show only the last 4 digits of any social security number, an individual's tax identification number, or a financial account number, only the initials of a minor's name, and only the year of any person's date of birth. If a claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services to avoid embarrassment or disclosure of confidential health care information. You may later be required to give more information if the trustee or someone else in interest objects to the claim.

Proof of claim: A form that shows the creditor has a claim against the debtors on or before the date of the bankruptcy filing (in these cases, January 29, 2019). The form must be filed in the district where the case is pending.

Redaction of information: Masking, editing out, or deleting certain information to protect privacy. Filers must redact or leave out information entitled to privacy on the Proof of Claim form and any attached documents.

Offers to purchase a claim

Certain entities purchase claims for an amount that is less than the face value of the claims. These entities may contact creditors offering to purchase their claims. Some written communications from these entities may easily be confused with official court documentation or communications from the debtor. These entities do not represent the bankruptcy court, the bankruptcy trustee, or the debtor. A creditor has no obligation to sell its claim. However, if a creditor decides to sell its claim, any transfer of that claim is subject to Bankruptcy Rule 3001(e), any provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.) that apply, and any orders of the bankruptcy court that apply.
